

Jan. 10, 2014

Information for Oral Presentations at the DPRI Annual Meeting

Thank you for registrating for the DPRI Annual Meeting on 27-28 February 2014.

DPRI staff, please convey the following information to students and participants from outside of DPRI

Please submit a 1-page abstract to the DPRI Office for Public Relations and Publications via E-mail (ksk-kenkyu@dpri.kyoto-u.ac.jp) by Jan. 21. Submitted abstracts will be immediately posted on the DPRI webpage.

1. Presentation time

15 minutes

(12 minutes for presentation and 3 minutes for questions and discussion)

2. Projector and PC connection

* Each presenter should bring their own computer to connect to the projectors in each room .

* To facilitate smooth running of the session, we recommend appropriate arrangements, such as sharing computers for multiple presentations. Such arrangements should be made with the session chairpersons and room assistants.

3. Changes and cancellations

We request that you do not change speakers, titles, or contents of your presentation. If it is absolutely necessary to make changes or cancel, please contact the session room manager in advance.

4. Other

You should bring copies of your abstract and/or other handouts for distribution at the session. We recommend that you prepare 50 copies.

Concerning any other matters, please contact the session room manager in advance.

The chairpersons, room assistants and room managers for each session will be announced in another email.

Best regards,

Prof. Sumio SAWADA

Chair, DPRI event promotion committee