

Memorandum for Academic Cooperation and Exchange Concluded with Department of Geology and Mines, Ministry of Economic Affairs, Kingdom of Bhutan

Disaster Prevention Research Institute (DPRI), Kyoto University and Department of Geology and Mines, Ministry of Economic Affairs, Kingdom of Bhutan have concluded a General Memorandum for Academic Cooperation and Exchange. On March 21 2014, Associate Professor Shiro Ohmi visited the Department on behalf of DPRI Director, and exchanged signs with Mr. Ugyen Wangda, the Officiating Director General.

This agreement is to enhance further academic exchange and cooperation in the fields of geohazards risk mitigation and disaster risk management, which is expected to promote research to mitigate damage from natural disasters in the future.

After the signing ceremony held at the Department of Geology and Mines:
Mr. Ugyen Wangda, the Officiating Director General of the Department (center), Associate Professor Shiro Ohmi, DPRI (second from the right), Ms. Sachiko Yoshioka, URA, Science Coordinator, Kyoto University (second from the left).